Further details:

Thilagavadiyar Girls' Home (TGH), Palugamum, Batticaloa, Srilanka provides housing for orphans girls of economically disadvantaged communities to graduate from secondary school and follow vocational training or university education. Fund for Mahalirillam has been funding needy rural children at TGH, since the year 2008. It utilizes its funds through the Social Welfare Organization (SWO), a charity in Batticaloa, and embarked on projects which included a new building for TGH for housing children. It introduced after school learning programs in Oct 2017 delivering video lessons via zoom to all the children, and employed local teachers & Australian volunteer teachers to help children improve their learning ability and perform better in the examinations. In the year 2022/23 Mahalirillam supported 50 children accommodated in TGH and offered 55 scholarships to disadvantaged University /GCE AL students. It also funded income-generating projects that are managed by the SWO.
